

FULMER, DAVID (son of Peter Fulmer and Susannah Zertoss, of Winter Quarters, Neb.). Born July 7, 1803. Chillicothe, Northumberland county, Pa. Came to Utah Oct. 13, 1854. Edward Hunter company.

Married Rhoda Ann Marvin Sept. 18, 1831. Union township, Lawrence county, Pa. (daughter of Zora Marvin and Rhoda Williams of Union township). She was born Feb. 12, 1813. Union township, and died Aug. 18, 1892. Salt Lake City. She came to Utah Oct. 14, 1859. Edward Hunter company.

Their children: Eugene Herrin, m. Sarah Jane Mitchell; Julius Sextus, m. Lucy Elmer; Hannibal Octavius, m. Rachel Brown; Elvira Martha, m. John Hickenlooper; Hortensia Jane d. aged 11 years; Susannah, m. Ephraim Stockwell

⁵⁶

Snyder; Rhoda Ann, m. Hyrum Chapman; David (twin of Rhoda Ann), m. Caroline Linnell; Don Peter Marvin, m. Ida Martin; Mary Vilate, m. Samuel Andrew; Esther, m. John S. Bowers. Family home 6th ward Salt Lake City.

High priest; high councillor of Hancock stake; missionary; president Garden Grove branch; home missionary, Salt Lake stake, first counselor to Daniel Spencer; president Salt Lake stake, 1849; patriarch. Member of company appointed to explore southern Utah; captain of company sent to Independence Rock, to relieve a beleaguered immigrant company. Member of territorial legislature from Salt Lake county; city councilman at Nauvoo, Ill. Treasurer of university of Deseret; treasurer, pro tem, Salt Lake county, and later of Salt Lake City. Delegate to territorial convention from 6th ward, at which convention he was appointed director of agricultural society. Farmer. Died Oct. 21, 1873, Salt Lake City.